

JO CHIJ ST. NICHOLAS GIRLS' SCHOOL TESTIMONIAL

Name : GISELLE LIM

Identification No. : T0591020F

Giselle Lim was a student of CHIJ St. Nicholas Girls' School from 2018 to 2021.

Giselle is an enthusiastic student and never fails to take the initiative to liven up the class activities and brighten up the mood wherever she goes. She is also a very compassionate person who cares a great deal about her friends and would go to great lengths to look out for their well-being.

Giselle is also an inquisitive student who has a passion for learning. She never hesitates to clarify her doubts with the respective subject teachers and is very active in class discussions. Her learning attitude makes her a studious person.

When faced with pressure, Giselle does not give up but stays resilient. She strives to put in her best effort even when working under stressful conditions. She has a growth mindset and she is not afraid to take on new challenges and learn new things from them.

In spite of her busy schedule, Giselle was able to manage her time well and contributed significantly to the community. She took part in various Values-in-Action (VIA) projects, ranging from volunteering in her local church to interacting with people of all ages. She participated in her church as a facilitator to guide younger children in their spiritual journey over the course of one week. She also visited St Joseph's home in 2019 and helped in maintaining a movable cart store which allowed the elderly in the home to experience shopping in spite of being confined to the home.

Giselle had also played a part as an Exco Member in her self-initiated VIA project. Her duties involved the oversight of the project's social media account. She actively contributed by helping to collate all the relevant information and by ensuring that the social media feed provided constant updates for the participants.

Giselle was the Media Leader for her class for 2 consecutive years from 2020 to 2021. She actively contributed by helping to prepare the visualiser for classes. She helped her teachers to solve any equipment-related problems that arose during the lesson.

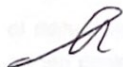

In Giselle's four years in this school, she managed a healthy balance between her academic pursuits and co-curricular activities (CCA). As a member of the Infocomm Media Club, she actively contributed to the school by enthusiastically volunteering for duties through her CCA to help out at both major and minor school events. As a senior and appointed leader for ad-hoc projects, she guided her juniors well during duties so as to ensure that the event flowed as smoothly as possible. This demonstrated her immense leadership potential. She also worked well with her peers, and this showed her capability as a team player.

Giselle is enthusiastic, compassionate and resilient. This can be reflected in her active contribution to the CCA and class committee. She is a valuable team player and works well with others, making her an asset to any organization she joins in future.
